CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: In the beginning, before time, before people, before the world began,
People: God was.
Leader: Here and now among us, beside us, enlisting the people of earth for the purposes of heaven,
People: God is.
Leader: In the future, when we have turned to dust and all we know has found its fulfillment,
People: God will be.
Leader: Not denying the world, but delighting in it, not condemning the world, but redeeming it, through Jesus Christ, by the power of the Holy Spirit,
People: God was. God is. God will be.
Leader: Let us worship God!

HYMN Come, Thou Fount Of Every Blessing NETTLETON

OPENING PRAYER (Unison) (Based on Isaiah 5: 1-7)

Most Gracious God, we greet you once again in this sacred time and space. We have come because we need to be reminded of your love and your expectations for our living. We are like the vine you planted, watered and protected. We know in our hearts that we desire your presence in our lives. So we come to worship You; inspired to pray and listen for your Word to speak to our hearts. Reveal again your desires for each of us. Amen.

GLORIA PATRI #513

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end, A-men, A-men.

GREETINGS

PROCLAMATION OF GOD'S WORD

RESPONSIVE PSALM 103:1-12

The Psalm will be intoned once: The Congregation sings the same Response, and then again at the "℟" indication below.

[1]Bless God, O my soul,
and all that is within me, bless God's holy name.

[2]Bless God, O my soul,
and do not forget all God's benefits —

[3]who forgives all your iniquity,
who heals all your diseases,

[4]who redeems your life from the Pit,
who crowns you with steadfast love and mercy,

[5]who satisfies you with good as long as you live
so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's. ℟

[6]God works vindication and justice for all who are oppressed.

[7]God made known God's ways to Moses,
and God's acts to the people of Israel.

[8]God is merciful and gracious,
slow to anger and abounding in steadfast love. ℟

[9]God will not always accuse,
nor will God be angry forever.

[10]God does not deal with us according to our sins,
nor repay us according to our iniquities.

[11]For as the heavens are high above the earth,
so great is God's steadfast love
toward those who fear God;

[12]as far as the east is from the west,
so far God removes our transgressions from us. ℟

Revelation 4:6-8

…And in front of the throne there is something like a sea of glass, like crystal. Around the throne, and on each side of the throne, are four living creatures, full of eyes in front and behind: the first living creature like a lion, the second living creature like an ox, the third living creature with a face like a human face, and the fourth living creature like a flying eagle.
And the four living creatures, each of them with six wings, are full of eyes all around and inside. Day and night without ceasing they sing, "Holy, holy, holy, the Lord God the Almighty, who was and is and is to come."

John 7:37-39

On the last day of the festival, the great day, while Jesus was standing there, he cried out, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me, and let the one who believes in me drink. As the scripture has said, 'Out of the believer's heart shall flow rivers of living water.'" Now he said this about the Spirit, which believers in him were to receive; for as yet there was no Spirit, because Jesus was not yet glorified.

Pastor: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

GRATIA TIBI Thanks Be to Thee T. Tallis

People: We trust in God.
Leader: We are called to proclaim Jesus, crucified and risen, our judge and our hope.
All: In life, in death, in life beyond death, God is with us. We are not alone. Thanks be to God. Amen.

PASTORAL PRAYER

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

O Mighty God, you have called us to live in faith and in freedom. But we confess that so often we live with tightness in our chest. You call us to move in a new direction, but we cling to the path we know. You call us to listen for you, but we clutter our minds with every other voice but your voice. You call us to reach outward in love, but we are too tired and worn down to care for anyone but ourselves. Forgive us, Lord. Forgive us for our self-centeredness. Forgive us for our stubbornness. Forgive us for forgetting that you are our freedom. Heal us and set us free, again and again. We pray in Christ's name. Amen.

A time of silence for personal confession

KYRIE #545 Lord, Have Mercy Upon Us J. Merbecke

CONGREGATION JOINS IN SINGING (1510 – 1585)

Lord, have mercy upon us; Christ have mercy upon us;
Lord, have mercy upon us.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.
People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

OFFERTORY If Ye Love Me, Keep My Commandments R. Shakarian *(1950)

THE DOXOLOGY #515 OLD HUNDRETH

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise him all creatures here below;
Praise him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (Unison)

Lord, you take delight in us and in all your creation. Receive what we offer as testimony to your goodness, and let these gifts lead to rejoicing in your church and all your world; in Jesus' name. Amen.

The Communion

It is a tradition at First Church that we eat the bread and drink the cup together as the people of God renewing our covenant. We serve grape juice and gluten free bread.

Invitation, Sursum Corda and Communion Prayer

Leader: The Lord be with you.
People: And also with you.
Leader: Lift up your hearts.
People: We lift them up to God.
Leader: Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People: It is right to give Him thanks and praise.

Leader: It is right to glorify You and to give You thanks, our holy and living God; You dwell in light inaccessible from before time and forever. Fountain of life and source of all goodness, You made all things and fill them with Your blessing; You created them to rejoice in the splendor of Your radiance. With the faithful of every time and place, we joyfully praise Your name:

Sanctus #550 S. Wesley
(1766 – 1837)

Holy, holy, holy, Lord God of hosts,
Heaven and earth are full of thy glory:
Glory be to thee, O Lord most high. A-men.

Leader: We remember that on the night of betrayal and desertion, Jesus took bread and having blessed it, He broke it and gave it to His disciples saying, “This is My body which is broken for you. Do this in remembrance of Me.” In the same way, Jesus also took the cup, after supper, saying, “This cup is of the new covenant in My blood. Do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.” By eating of this bread and drinking this cup, we proclaim Christ’s death, celebrate Christ’s resurrection, and await Christ's coming again.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done,

Give us this day, our daily bread
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Notes from the Chancel

In the Offertory this morning, we hear a contemporary choral work by composer Roupen Shakarin. Oxford University Press writes the following about his life: born in 1950, "…he received his Bachelor's and Master's degrees in composition at the University of Washington… He continued his studies in conducting at Yale University with Otto-Werner Mueller…and since 1986… has been music director of the Seattle-based chamber orchestra Philharmonia Northwest…" He has written various works for orchestra, woodwind quintet, brass and organ and is a commissioned composer of the American Guild of Organists (Seattle, July 2000). Today's choral Offertory was penned in dedication to Leslie Martin, Director of Music at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church in Seattle, Washington.

In this Sunday's Communion liturgy, the congregation may notice something a little different in one of the choral Motets. Although the traditional Latin for "Lord Have Mercy" and "Christ Have Mercy" (Kyrie Eleison, Christe Eleison) may be widely known to this congregation, there is something peculiar about the verbal pronunciation of this Sunday's first Communion Motet. In Germany and many other parts of Europe from the Middle Ages onward, Latin would be pronounced in the country's vernacular pronunciation, as opposed to the heavily Italian influenced "sacred" pronunciation, which is used widely in English-speaking countries today. So in this time period, composers wrote their works in Latin to be pronounced, for instance, with German vowels and consonants. This may result in a somewhat odd rendition of familiar texts, but produces the sounds intended best by the composer. For instance, we know pieces like the "Magnificat" to be pronounced with a soft "gn" as in "lasagna" – however in Germany, the "g" is hard! This makes the performance of particularly Bach works truly authentic, when using the "German" pronunciation of Latin for German music, which is still used today.

Léon Boëllmann died young but still left 68 published works, of which the Suite Gothique (Op. 25, 1895) is his most popular. The Prelude, the first Verset is from a twelve-piece set of works, written in 1890. It uses the Gregorian chant ADORO TE DEVOTE as its main musical theme. Its reflective start with closed Swell box and all 8' (flue) stops on the Swell, develops to the first solo of the theme on the combined registration of the Principal and Small Diapasons 8' on the Great manual. Its slow build-up climaxes in a restatement of the theme in a majestic manner; using the complete coupled 8' principal resources (Fonds) of the Swell, Choir and Great. The theme unravels dynamically to end as soft as it begins.

The corresponding movement used in the Postlude, also based on ADORO TE DEVOTE is written in the form of a march: a music style common in festival church services throughout the late 19th and early 20th centuries. Its more fragmented use of the chant theme is exchanged between the hands and pedal, accompanied with a stately but somewhat jaunty march movement. It should be noted that this piece only uses resources on the Swell and Great divisions of the organ (plus Pedal) and ends with only about one-fourth of the organ's stops and total volume potential.

Rev. Ken Bids Goodbye to First Church

Dear Friends and Members of First Church,

Thank you for making my three years of ministry among you a wonderful and enriching experience! I am deeply grateful that you called me to serve as one of your ministers, and I will always look back at my time among you with appreciation and joy.

While I sensed God's call for me to move on to a new role in ministry, saying goodbye was very hard. I enjoyed my time among you and always felt that I was part of a very special church family. It was a blessing to work with a very talented, dedicated staff and to be part of an exceptional ministry team led by Rev. Andy, and I believe that I grew as a minister and person because of my association with these wonderful, caring, and capable people. Likewise, it was a blessing to have been able to work alongside so many dedicated volunteers of the congregation as we served one another and the world around us.

I am grateful that on my final Sunday with you, I was able to see the members of our Confirmation Class affirm their faith and join the church. Teaching this group and our other youth and children brought me great joy, and I will miss them all!

The beautiful gifts offered by the church on my last Sunday will help me to remember you and my time among you, and I am very grateful for your gracious farewell. While I am no longer with you in person, please know that the good people of The First Church of Nashua will always be in my heart and in my prayers.

May God's boundless grace be upon you, and may God's perfect peace be within you.

Your brother in Christ,

Rev. Ken McGarry

INFORMATION

First Church was gathered on December 16, 1685 as The Church of Christ in Dunstable. On the same day Thomas Weld was ordained and settled as minister of the church. The current building, built in 1894, is the tenth building to house the First Church community. In 1961, the church entered fellowship with the United Church of Christ. We welcome into our membership any who will own the covenant of First Church and seek to continue the ministry of Jesus Christ in the community and world. Those interested in joining the church should contact the church office for information. New members are received during worship in November, February and May. The Sacrament of Communion is celebrated on the first Sunday of the month and the Sacrament of Baptism on the last. First Church is supported almost entirely by pledges. Every member is expected to make a financial pledge according to their ability.

PASTORAL CARE

Pastoral Care is available to all in need. Please keep the ministers informed of occasions of sickness, sorrow, and joy. Let the church office know if you or family member or friend is hospitalized.
