HYMN Holy Spirit, Come, Confirm Us FOR THE BREAD

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

Our God, when Your Spirit speaks, we turn deaf ears, for we fear what You might call us to do. When Your Spirit touches our lips, we close our mouths, embarrassed to speak Your Word. When the wind of Your Spirit blows, we close the windows of our hearts, afraid the breeze will disrupt our ordered lives. When the fire of Your Spirit touches us, we quench the flame, fearful of the new life it might bring. Forgive us, gracious and loving Lord.

A time of silence for personal confession

Leader: Gracious and merciful Lord, forgive us our sins.

People: Refresh and renew us with the Holy Spirit, so that we are fruitful and vital disciples of Jesus Christ. Amen.

Question of Owning the Covenant of The First Church

Relying upon divine help we promise to cooperate as members of this Church in the study and practice of the law which Christ taught as supreme, “Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart and with all thy soul and with all thy strength and with all thy mind, and thy neighbor as thyself”, to attend its services; to contribute to its support according to our ability; to aid in the extension of the Kingdom of God; and to promote efficiency, purity, and peace in this household of faith.

Words of Welcome by the Congregation

We promise you our continuing friendship and prayers as we share the hopes and labors of the church of Jesus Christ. By the power of the Holy Spirit may we continue to grow together in God’s knowledge and love and be witnesses of our risen Savior.

PROCLAMATION OF GOD'S WORD

SCRIPTURE READINGS Romans 8: 22-27

We know that the whole creation has been groaning in labor pains until now; and not only the creation, but we ourselves, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, groan inwardly while we wait for adoption, the redemption of our bodies. For in hope we were saved. Now hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what is seen? But if we hope for what we do not see, we wait for it with patience.

Likewise the Spirit helps us in our weakness; for we do not know how to pray as we ought, but that very Spirit intercedes with sighs too deep for words. And God, who searches the heart, knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because the Spirit intercedes for the saints according to the will of God.

Acts 2:1-21

When the day of Pentecost had come, they were all together in one place. And suddenly from heaven there came a sound like the rush of a violent wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting. Divided tongues, as of fire, appeared among them, and a tongue rested on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other languages, as the Spirit gave them ability.

Now there were devout Jews from every nation under heaven living in Jerusalem. And at this sound the crowd gathered and was bewildered, because each one heard them speaking in the native language of each. Amazed and astonished, they asked, "Are not all these who are speaking Galileans? And how is it that we hear, each of us, in our own native language? Parthians, Medes, Elamites, and residents of Mesopotamia, Judea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya belonging to Cyrene, and visitors from Rome, both Jews and proselytes, Cretans and Arabs—in our own languages we hear them speaking about God's deeds of power." All were amazed and perplexed, saying to one another, "What does this mean?" But others sneered and said, "They are filled with new wine."

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them, "Men of Judea and all who live in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and listen to what I say. Indeed, these are not drunk, as you suppose, for it is only nine o'clock in the morning. No, this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel: 'In the last days it will be, God declares, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh, and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams. Even upon my slaves, both men and women, in those days I will pour out my Spirit; and they shall prophesy. And I will show portents in the heaven above and signs on the earth below, blood, and fire, and smoky mist. The sun shall be turned to darkness and the moon to blood, before the coming of the Lord's great and glorious day. Then everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.'

Leader: This is the word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

GRATIA TIBI Thanks Be to Thee T. Tallis

RESPONSE TO GOD'S WORD

STATEMENT OF FAITH OF THE CLASS OF 2021

We believe God is our loving Creator. Jesus leads us in the way of God and God's teachings. Jesus came so God's teachings could be more relatable to humans. Jesus was crucified and rose from the dead to conquer sin and mend the separation between Heaven and Earth. The Holy Spirit is always with us leading us and guiding us. God the Father, Son and Holy Spirit make up The Trinity.

Creation is the beginning of everything and a place to grow ever closer to God. We experience God in walks in the woods and sleeping out under the stars. Nature is vital to our connection with God.

Church provides a safe place we know we can trust. When we worship in a community of people with shared faith, we become closer with God, we celebrate God, share our beliefs and grow in our relationship with God as we discuss our faith and do God's work.

We affirm our faith in God when we come together to do the work of the church and worship the living God.

Prayer is a way to connect with God and a way to thank God. We pray when we need support and guidance. We pray to praise God and to listen for God's still small voice.

Our mission is to spread the love of God through Jesus's teachings and caring for others seeking justice for those without a voice.

We covenant with the Holy Trinity, family and friends sharing both joy and responsibility to do God's work on Earth.

We are grateful for everything God has done, is doing and will do. We show our gratitude by saying prayers of thanks, helping others and spreading God's messages. This is the Good News!

Notes from the Chancel

This Sunday, the Eighth Sunday of Easter, we celebrate the Rite of Confirmation. Five young members of our church community will be confirmed in their Christian faith. Supporting "Confirmation Sunday" at The First Church, today's worship music spans nearly eleven centuries, and takes us from the earliest songs on record in church history which call upon the Holy Spirit to dwell in our hearts and minds, up through present day sacred choral compositions for the living Church.

It is a pleasure to welcome back Cheryl Bishkoff, oboe, to our worship services. Not only will we be treated to Cheryl's wonderful solo playing in the Prelude and Postlude, but also in a more supportive accompanying mode, within our Offertory, joined by the Chancel Choir, in their first session back in worship since March 2020. Our distanced capacity was foreseen with 20 singers in a Chancel that can normally accommodate 36. We are grateful to Nicole Plummer and the University of Miami Music School for securing a donation of surplus "singer's masks" to our Music Ministry, to enable a safe return of our vocal choirs in worship.

After a masterful Prelude by (somewhat unknown) Italian composer Giovanni Boni, the Chancel Choir offers the traditional chant theme VENI CREATOR which invokes the presence of the Holy Spirit to come on those gathered in Christ's name. Since 1,100 years, this chant-theme has represented prayer to the Spirit, and allows us to share in our Christian heritage with generations past, in a voice still strong and reverent in the 21st century.

This morning's first anthem: Statham's O Come, Thou Spirit Divinest sets the tone through gentle a cappella (unaccompanied) singing for the following Rite of Confirmation.

The Prayer Response, implores the Lord to guide us in righteousness, in a beloved Wesley choral response sung for centuries, borrowed from the Methodist tradition.

During the Offertory, Helvey's choral composition O Holy Spirit Praise to You offers a chance to reflect on the presence of the Holy Spirit in our lives. The constant repetition of the Latin "Laus tibi, Sanctus Spiritus" is then translated at the end of the anthem, reflecting its English title, calling us to praise the holy Paraclete.

Rounding out this morning's worship, in the Postlude, is an additional movement of the Boni Sonata for oboe and organ. A rare musical delight to close our corporate worship this morning!

Tower Update - The stained glass windows (23 of them) have been reinstalled and their new frames along with them. We are planning on lighting up the windows from the inside so that in the evening, you will be able to see the light shining through and the beautiful stained glass from quite a distance. Next up is repair to the interior tower. This is all brick work that, while repairs have been done over the years, is virtually original going back to 1893. That work will start in the September time frame. We will be starting a fund raising campaign in early winter 2021 but if you are interested in contributing now, we are accepting donations. Checks can be made out to First Church with the words "Tower Project" in the memo line. To read more about the Tower work, please go to: https://tfcucc.org/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/TowerBrochure-26Mar21.pdf.

Outreach Focus of the Month - Adult Learning Center

As we begin to emerge from the pandemic, the Adult Learning Center (ALC) is happy to report that not only did we survive, we thrived. We learned new skills, we tackled the challenges of reopening, and many staff took on different roles. It's been a demanding year but we remain strong, dedicated, and ready for the future.

ALC Programs:

- English as a Second Language (ESL) program
- Adult Basic Education or HiSET preparation classes - HiSET has taken the place of the GED. Last March in-person classes were moved to on-line classes.
- ALC loaned out laptops, or students were able to obtain them through the United Way, along with Wi-Fi hot spots.
- Students adapted quickly to on-line classes and as of April 2021, we are serving over 800 adult students. In the future the hope is to continue with some on-line classes as well as in person classes.
- Since last September we have been providing before and after school care, on site, at elementary schools in Litchfield and Hollis. Our Reopening Taskforce has carefully monitored State of NH and CDC guidelines that have helped us to operate safely. We are excited to be returning to the Nashua elementary schools in May.
- At our 4 Lake Street facility we operate a full-time childcare for children from 6 weeks to Pre-K. We have been open since last October and have been safely caring for 30 children, about half our usual capacity. We want to again thank the many church members who provided our children and childcare staff with a wonderful assortment of mittens.
- Our alternative high school, Clearway, also pivoted to on-line classes and kept over 50 teenagers engaged in high school. Clearway is now providing in-person classes.

If you have any questions about the ALC, please call Carol Baldwin at 882-9080 x 2204. Thank you!

INFORMATION

First Church was gathered on December 16, 1685 as The Church of Christ in Dunstable. On the same day Thomas Weld was ordained and settled as minister of the church. The current building, built in 1894, is the tenth building to house the First Church community. In 1961, the church entered fellowship with the United Church of Christ. We welcome into our membership any who will own the covenant of First Church and seek to continue the ministry of Jesus Christ in the community and world. Those interested in joining the church should contact the church office for information. The Sacrament of Communion is celebrated on the first Sunday of the month and the Sacrament of Baptism on the last. First Church is supported almost entirely by pledges. Every member is expected to make a financial pledge according to their ability.
