APPROACH TO GOD

Let us keep silence as we prepare for worship.

MEDITATION "Pride makes us artificial and humility makes us real."
Thomas Merton

PRELUDE Wade In Duh Waddah! Spiritual
arr. W. F. Smith

CALL TO WORSHIP

Leader: Ascribe to the Lord, O heavenly beings, ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.
People: Ascribe to the Lord the glory of His name; worship the Lord in holy splendor.
Leader: The voice of the Lord flashes forth flames of fire.
People: The voice of the Lord shakes the wilderness;
Leader: The voice of the Lord causes the oaks to whirl, and strips the forest bare; and in His temple all say, 'Glory!'
Leader: May the Lord give strength to His people!
People: May the Lord bless His people with peace!
All: Let us worship the Lord in Holy Splendor!

HYMN At the Font We Start Our Journey (next page) WESTMINSTER ABBEY

 PRAYER OF CONFESSION (Unison)

Creator God, we stand amazed at Your power and glory. We are eager to worship You and offer our praise, but we are often reluctant to answer when we hear You calling our name. We rejoice in our baptism, but fear the fire of the Holy Spirit. Forgive us when we forget Your promise to be with us always, Lord Jesus. Reach out Your hand and touch us with the power of Your love. Free us from every form of bondage and strengthen us to follow your way. Amen.

A time of silence for personal reflection.

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (Isaiah 43)

Leader: Hear the word of our Lord, spoken through the prophet Isaiah: "I have called you by name. You are mine. Do not fear, for I have redeemed you."
People: Thanks be to God. Amen.

GREETINGS

PROCLAMATION OF GOD'S WORD

SCRIPTURE READINGS Isaiah 42:1-9

Here is my servant, whom I uphold, my chosen, in whom my soul delights; I have put my spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the nations. He will not cry or lift up his voice, or make it heard in the street; a bruised reed he will not break, and a dimly burning wick he will not quench; he will faithfully bring forth justice. He will not grow faint or be crushed until he has established justice in the earth; and the coastlands wait for his teaching.

Thus says God, the LORD, who created the heavens and stretched them out, who spread out the earth and what comes from it, who gives breath to the people upon it and spirit to those who walk in it: I am the LORD, I have called you in righteousness, I have taken you by the hand and kept you; I have given you as a covenant to the people, a light to the nations, to open the eyes that are blind, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, from the prison those who sit in darkness. I am the LORD, that is my name; my glory I give to no other, nor my praise to idols. See, the former things have come to pass, and new things I now declare; before they spring forth, I tell you of them.

Matthew 3:13-17

Then Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan, to be baptized by him. John would have prevented him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and do you come to me?" But Jesus answered him, "Let it be so now; for it is proper for us in this way to fulfill all righteousness." Then he consented. And when Jesus had been baptized, just as he came up from the water, suddenly the heavens were opened to him and he saw the Spirit of God descending like a dove and alighting on him. And a voice from heaven said, "This is my Son, the Beloved, with whom I am well pleased."

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

GRATIA TIBI Thanks Be to Thee T. Tallis
(10:00) (1505 – 1585)

ANTHEM Tribus Miraculis L. Marenzio
STAFF SINGERS and FRIENDS (1553 – 1599)

We celebrate a day sanctified by three miracles:
Today a star led the Wise men to the manger;
Today water was changed into wine at the marriage feast;
Today Christ chose to be baptized by John in the Jordan for our salvation.
Alleluia.

SERMON "A Voice from Heaven" Rev. Dr. Andrew W. Armstrong

HYMN O Radiant Christ, Incarnate Word OLD HUNDRETH LM
(10:00)

1. O radiant Christ, incarnate word,
   Eternal love revealed in time:
   Come, make your home within our hearts,
   That we may dwell in light sublime.
2. Our bartered, busy loves burn dim,
   Too tired to care, too numb to feel.
   Come, shine upon our shadowed world;
   Your radiance bathes with power to heal.
3. Your glory shone at Jordan's stream,
   The font where we were born anew.
   Attune your church to know you near;
   Illumine all we say and do.
4. Light of Nations, fill the earth;
   Our faith and hope and love renew.
   Come, lead the peoples to your peace,
   As stars once led the way to you.

RESPONSE TO GOD'S WORD

LITANY

Leader: In the beginning, God's Spirit hovered over the face of the waters and brought forth the world.
People: At the Red Sea God led the people through the waters of death and freed a nation.
Leader: In the wilderness God gave life to the people with water from the rock.
People: In the waters of Mary's womb God's Spirit birthed a Savior.
Leader: From the waters of the Jordan God's Spirit raised up the Messiah.
People: On the Sea of Galilee Jesus walked upon the water.
Leader: To a woman at a well Jesus promised living water.
All: And in our baptisms, The Holy Spirit makes us new creations! Under the water of baptism, we die to ourselves. Up from the waters of baptism our new selves are born. Thanks be to God!

PRAYER CONCERNS

SILENT PRAYERS and PASTORAL PRAYER

THE LORD'S PRAYER

Our Father, Who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name
Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done,
On earth, as it is in heaven.
Give us this day, our daily bread
And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

DOXOLOGY #515 OLD HUNDRETH LM

Praise God from Whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host:
Praise Father, Son and Holy Ghost. Amen.

PRAYER OF DEDICATION (Unison)

Gracious and Holy God, whose giving knows no ending, we offer up to You a portion of what You have entrusted to us; our resources; our time; ourselves. Receive these gifts by Your grace. Multiply and use them through the power of the Holy Spirit to serve Christ in the world. Amen.

Notes from the Chancel

This Sunday in Worship, we commemorate the Baptism of Jesus. Baptism is the sacramental entry into Christianity we have all received! It is difficult to imagine the Christmas Season already being over, although our Orthodox brothers and sisters celebrate Christmas just this weekend, coinciding with Epiphany on January 6. Technically, the liturgical Christmas season in certain traditions, continues until Candlemas (Feb. 2), where in European churches, trees and the crèche are often kept up until this time period.

Our hymnody this morning draws all three titles from the modern New Century Hymnal, of the United Church of Christ. Through our use of the CCLI license, we are able to reprint hymns not found in our Pilgrim Hymnal directly in our bulletin, expanding on the vast repertory found in our Pilgrim Hymnal, with some hymn tunes and modern texts not found in earlier Congregational hymnals. The Baptism-centered texts unify our congregational song with this Sunday's commemoration of the pivotal meeting of John-the-Baptist and Jesus.

The opening hymn, draws on a hymn text written by Jeffrey Rowthorn in 1992 for an Episcopal Church in Connecticut diocese. Starting our journey at the font, through the pulpit, altar and door, our "Easter work" in bringing the Good News to all is proclaimed, but with a strong reminder that it all begins with being baptized into "Easter faith." Its tune is attributed to Henry Purcell from the 17th century, brought into modern hymnody in the 19th century by Ernest Hawkins.

Our Anthem this morning, draws its themes from two beloved Spirituals: Down by the Riverside and Standing in the Need of Prayer. It has admittedly, a very strong "show" (musical theatre) feel in its light jazz treatment of the main melodic themes. Mix all this together with just a touch of Barbershop-style chromatic choral harmonization and add a touch of a "kick-line" finale Coda (ending extension) to the piece, and all the elements are there for a touch of a modern camp revival! – All in all, though, it is still an offering of worship and not a performance!

Our middle hymn was coupled with a widely-known hymn tune, to make sure the congregation could appreciate its text, without another "lesser" known tune to maneuver! Commissioned by the Lutheran School of Theology in Chicago, Ruth Duck's 1989 text provides a fitting center for Epiphany celebrations, with its sense of wonder at the incarnation and petition through Christ's revelation our lives may be changed.

Our Offertory this morning, is a tour-de-force setting of the Spiritual Roll, Jordan, Roll. A swift tempo and rhythmic juxtapositions between all four voice parts keep the congregation on the edge of their seats. The constant movement of the rhythms is meant to reflect the rushing waters of the river Jordan. This contemporary setting was penned in the 21st century, using the Spiritual passed down by aural tradition in the 19th century.

Our closing hymn, was penned by Carl P. Daw, Jr. in 1990. To be used the First Sunday after Epiphany, Daw states that "the Baptism of Christ is one of the regular occasional for baptisms and for the making and renewing of baptismal vows…" The hymn text also recalls Jesus' temptations in the wilderness in His time of discernment. The tune itself is much older, dating back to 16th century France, where the Geneva Psalter was commissioned by John Calvin to set the course of music at St. Peter's Church in Geneva, Switzerland.

Christian Formation Corner

Sunday, January 8, 2023 - Today is the Baptism of Christ/ First Sunday after Epiphany and the liturgical color is white.

Sunday School and nursery care resumes today.
The church nursery opens at 9:45 AM to care for children (infants through age 2) during the 10:00 AM worship service. Nursery coordinators are on hand to greet parents and explain the procedure for checking in and picking up your child.

New! La Romana, DR Mission trip supplies update- Thank you to those who have made donations so far. In addition to the medical, school and craft supplies that we have been collecting, we are now looking for summer clothing. We need infants, children and adults in sizes large or smaller. Shoes or sandals are needed too. Also, we are looking for men's light-weight suits. Sunday worship services are an important part of the Dominican life and church is a rather formal event. Men wear suits and ties each Sunday.

You may continue to drop off donations at the table in Fellowship Hall. There is a list of needed items and a donation basket at the table each Sunday.

If you like to donate online, the LA Romana Trip does have a Go Fund Me page: La Romana Mission Trip 2023. You may also scan this QR code which will take you to the go fund me page. Thank you for all of your support and encouragement. Contact Beth Raymond or the church office with any questions.

First Church to Host Active Shooter Training: Prevention, Preparedness, and Response – Sunday, January 22, from 11:30 AM-1:00 PM in the dining room. Hosted by The Safe Church Team, this will be held in cooperation with the NH Department of Security and Emergency Management. Steven Cooper and Tayla Jacques will be talking with us about practical things you can do should you find yourself in an active shooter situation as well as useful suggestions for staying safe.

They will have walked through our church in advance to help with exit strategies as well as ideas for the Church as a whole to tighten up our buildings. All this information will be shared with you. We encourage you to bring your family as well as your friends from outside our church. This could well be a life-saving 90 minutes you will always remember. Please sign up at the welcome center. Seating is limited.

WELCOME

A warm welcome is extended to all who are attending this worship service. A special greeting to those who are visiting or worshiping with us for the first time. Please sign the guest book in the back of the sanctuary or fill out the visitor card found in the pew racks. Fill out the back of the card, and put it in the offering plate or hand it to a minister, Usher or Deacon so we may acknowledge your visit. Join in the time of fellowship, in Fellowship Hall, following worship. If you have any questions about the life and ministry of First Church please seek out the individuals wearing colored nametags; they are members of the various boards and committees.

INFORMATION

First Church was gathered on December 16, 1685 as The Church of Christ in Dunstable. On the same day Thomas Weld was ordained and settled as minister of the church. The current building, built in 1894, is the tenth building to house the First Church community. In 1961, the church entered fellowship with the United Church of Christ. We welcome into our membership any who will own the covenant of First Church and seek to continue the ministry of Jesus Christ in the community and world. Those interested in joining the church should contact the church office for information. The Sacrament of Communion is celebrated on the first Sunday of the month and the Sacrament of Baptism on the last. First Church is supported almost entirely by pledges. Every member is expected to make a financial pledge according to their ability.

PASTORAL CARE

Pastoral Care is available to all in need. Please keep the ministers informed of occasions of sickness, sorrow, and joy. Let the church office know if you or family member or friend is hospitalized.

COMMUNICATIONS

If you have a change of address, phone number, or email address, please let the church office know so that we may keep our records current.

All information for the weekly bulletin must be in the office by noon on Wednesday. All information for the monthly newsletter must be in the office by 4:30 PM on the second Monday of the month.

All use of the building must be scheduled by the Secretary.
