OPENING PRAYER (Unison)

Holy God, You open Your hand and satisfy the hunger and thirst of every living thing. We, too, turn to You again, longing to be filled—to eat of the Bread of Life, to drink from Your life-giving streams, and live. May the time we spend together strengthen our relationship with You, and renew our commitment to live in this world as Your faithful disciples. For You alone are God, the Source and Sustainer of life. In Jesus' name, Amen.

GLORIA PATRI #513

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost
As it was in the beginning, is now and ever shall be,
world without end, A-men, A-men.

GREETINGS

PROCLAMATION OF GOD'S WORD

SCRIPTURE READINGS Exodus 17:1-7

From the wilderness of Sin the whole congregation of the Israelites journeyed by stages, as the LORD commanded. They camped at Rephidim, but there was no water for the people to drink. The people quarrelled with Moses, and said, 'Give us water to drink.' Moses said to them, 'Why do you quarrel with me? Why do you test the LORD?' But the people thirsted there for water; and the people complained against Moses and said, 'Why did you bring us out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and livestock with thirst?' So Moses cried out to the LORD, 'What shall I do with this people? They are almost ready to stone me.' The LORD said to Moses, 'Go on ahead of the people, and take some of the elders of Israel with you; take in your hand the staff with which you struck the Nile, and go. I will be standing there in front of you on the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it, so that the people may drink.' Moses did so, in the sight of the elders of Israel. He called the place Massah and Meribah, because the Israelites quarrelled and tested the LORD, saying, 'Is the LORD among us or not?'

Matthew 21:23-32

When he entered the temple, the chief priests and the elders of the people came to him as he was teaching, and said, 'By what authority are you doing these things, and who gave you this authority?' Jesus said to them, 'I will also ask you one question; if you tell me the answer, then I will also tell you by what authority I do these things. Did the baptism of John come from heaven, or was it of human origin?' And they argued with one another, 'If we say, "From heaven", he will say to us, "Why then did you not believe him?" But if we say, "Of human origin", we are afraid of the crowd; for all regard John as a prophet.' So they answered Jesus, 'We do not know.' And he said to them, 'Neither will I tell you by what authority I am doing these things.

'What do you think? A man had two sons; he went to the first and said, "Son, go and work in the vineyard today." He answered, "I will not"; but later he changed his mind and went. The father went to the second and said the same; and he answered, “I go, sir”; but he did not go. Which of the two did the will of his father?’ They said, ‘The first.’ Jesus said to them, ‘Truly I tell you, the tax-collectors and the prostitutes are going into the kingdom of God ahead of you. For John came to you in the way of righteousness and you did not believe him, but the tax-collectors and the prostitutes believed him; and even after you saw it, you did not change your minds and believe him.

Pastor: This is the word of the Lord.

People: Thanks be to God.

GRATIA TIBI Thanks Be to Thee T. Tallis
(1505 – 1585)

SERMON “A Serious Business” Rev. Dr. Andrew W Armstrong

RESPONSIVE PSALM 78

Janet Poisson, psalmist

The Psalm will be intoned once: The Congregation sings the same Response, and then again at the “℟” indication below

[1]Give ear, O my people,
to my teaching;
incline your ears to the words
of my mouth.

[2]I will open my mouth in a parable;
I will utter dark sayings
from of old,

[3]things that we have heard and known,
that our ancestors have told us.

[4]We will not hide them
from their children;
we will tell to the coming
generation the glorious deeds
of God,

we will tell of God’s might,
and the wonders that God has done.

[12]In the sight of their ancestors
God worked marvels in the land
of Egypt, in the fields of Zoan.
[13]God divided the sea and let them
pass through it, and made the waters stand like a heap.

[14]In the daytime God led them
with a cloud,
and all night long with
a fiery light.

[15]God split rocks open
in the wilderness,
and gave them drink abundantly
as from the deep.

[16]God made streams come out of
the rock,
and caused waters to flow
down like rivers. ℟

RESPONSE TO GOD'S WORD

AFFIRMATION OF FAITH Philippians 2:5-11

Let the same mind be in you that was in Christ Jesus,
who, though he was in the form of God,
  did not regard equality with God
  as something to be exploited,
but emptied himself,
  taking the form of a slave,
  being born in human likeness.
And being found in human form,
  he humbled himself
  and became obedient to the point of death—
  even death on a cross.
Therefore God also highly exalted him
  and gave him the name
  that is above every name,
so that at the name of Jesus
  every knee should bend,
  in heaven and on earth and under the earth,
and every tongue should confess
  that Jesus Christ is Lord,
  to the glory of God the Father.

PRAYER CONCERNS

PASTORAL PRAYER

PRAYER OF CONFESSION (inspired by Exodus 17: 1-7, John 4)

Leader: God of mercy, hear the prayers of your thirsting people. For all those times when we failed to give You thanks for our blessings,
People: Forgive us, we pray.
Leader: For every time we promised to trust You but turned to our own way when Your response did not come soon enough or in the way we expected,
People: Forgive us, we pray.
Leader: For all those times when we reject Your wisdom to go on our way.
People: Forgive us and direct us in the way of peace. Amen.

A time of silence for personal confession

ASSURANCE OF PARDON (inspired by Romans 5, John 4)

Leader: Because of God's great love for us, we have peace with God and access to God's grace all through Jesus Christ who, while we were still sinners, died to free us from the bondage of sin. Therefore, we may ask of Christ to give us the living water that quenches the dryness of our souls. In this we know we are forgiven.

People: Thanks be to God!

INFORMATION

First Church was gathered on December 16, 1685 as The Church of Christ in Dunstable. On the same day Thomas Weld was ordained and settled as minister of the church. The current building, built in 1894, is the tenth building to house the First Church community. In 1961, the church entered fellowship with the United Church of Christ. We welcome into our membership any who will own the covenant of First Church and seek to continue the ministry of Jesus Christ in the community and world. Those interested in joining the church should contact the church office for information. New members are received during worship in November, February and May. The Sacrament of Communion is celebrated on the first Sunday of the month and the Sacrament of Baptism on the last. First Church is supported almost entirely by pledges. Every member is expected to make a financial pledge according to their ability.
