People: Let the heavens rejoice, let the earth be glad, let the sea resound and all that is in it. Let the fields be jubilant and everything in them; let all the trees of the forest sing for joy.

All: Let all creation rejoice before the Lord who comes to judge the earth and all people with righteousness and loving kindness.

SCRIPTURE READING Matthew 25:14-30

"For it is as if a man, going on a journey, summoned his slaves and entrusted his property to them; to one he gave five talents, to another two, to another one, to each according to his ability. Then he went away. The one who had received the five talents went off at once and traded with them, and made five more talents. In the same way, the one who had the two talents made two more talents. But the one who had received the one talent went off and dug a hole in the ground and hid his master's money. After a long time the master of those slaves came and settled accounts with them. Then the one who had received the five talents came forward, bringing five more talents, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me five talents; see, I have made five more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' And the one with the two talents also came forward, saying, 'Master, you handed over to me two talents; see, I have made two more talents.' His master said to him, 'Well done, good and trustworthy slave; you have been trustworthy in a few things, I will put you in charge of many things; enter into the joy of your master.' Then the one who had received the one talent also came forward, saying, 'Master, I knew that you were a harsh man, reaping where you did not sow, and gathering where you did not scatter seed; so I was afraid, and I went and hid your talent in the ground. Here you have what is yours.' But his master replied, 'You wicked and lazy slave! You knew, did you, that I reap where I did not sow, and gather where I did not scatter? Then you ought to have invested my money with the bankers, and on my return I would have received what was my own with interest. So take the talent from him, and give it to the one with the ten talents. For to all those who have, more will be given, and they will have an abundance; but from those who have nothing, even what they have will be taken away. As for this worthless slave, throw him into the outer darkness, where there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.'

Leader: This is the Word of the Lord.
People: Thanks be to God.

NOTES FROM THE CHANCEL

Today in worship, Stewardship Sunday comes together with what we also call Thanksgiving Sunday. The music of the worship service centers around the commemoration of one of the great holidays in the Congregational tradition: our beloved Thanksgiving celebration.

The rousing PRELUDE this morning is penned by Sigfrid Karg-Elert, organist and composer, one of the principal German composers for organ of his generation. Karg-Elert studied at the Leipzig Conservatory and in 1919 he became a member of the staff there. His early works reflect the influence of composers such as Debussy, Scriabin, and Schoenberg, but he later developed an original style that melded chromaticism and expanded harmonies with Renaissance and Baroque polyphony. The full resources of our Anderson Memorial Organ bring a German "Romantic" period treatment to the beloved hymn Now Thank We All, Our God.

The Decibells OFFERTORY this morning is a contemporary reflection on praising God. Using various bell techniques such as "plucking" (where the fingers of the player toss the bell's clapper onto the bell's casing) and "martellato" (where the player gently thrusts the bell into the table for a percussive effect), the "A-B-A" form of the music, allows a chance for our minds to wander into a prayer without words.

Composer of the Chancel Choir ANTHEM this morning, Robin Dean Dinda, was born in Wichita, Kansas in 1959. Robin is former Minister of Music of The First Church (UCC) in Nashua, New Hampshire, and wrote this commissioned anthem during his tenure here. (1989-1999). Dr. Dinda has composed hundreds of works. His many published compositions have been performed throughout North America, Europe, and Japan. His organ duos - works for four hands and four feet - have become standard repertory performed and recorded by musicians worldwide. He earned degrees from Davidson College, The University of Cincinnati, and The University of Michigan, holds the Fellowship Certificate of The American Guild of Organists, and is a writer member of ASCAP. He retired as Professor of Humanities (Music) at Fitchburg State, where he taught courses in music theory, history, and interdisciplinary fine arts for over two decades. He continues to serve as Director of Music at The First Parish (Unitarian - Universalist) in Fitchburg, since 2000.

Our POSTLUDE from 2009, was compiled through the British "Organists Charitable Trust" and is part of a compilation of eleven works for organ, some new commissions. Composer Philip John Moore studied at the Royal Conservatory of Music, and has served at both Guilford Cathedral and York Minster. The irregular "7/8" rhythm gives the work a fresh feeling, and a multi-metric softer interlude counters the main theme. As the piece concludes, we begin to draw once again on the fuller resources of the organ, as a final statement of praise for a Sunday morning.

Church Happenings and Outreach - New/Current

Have you seen our banner? "We are His disciples, I am one and you." ♪♫♪♫♪ Do you remember singing this song in Sunday School? The message of being one of God's disciples is a basic theme in our Christian faith and Discipleship is the theme of this year's Stewardship Campaign. You've read articles about our message in the newsletter and heard our witnessing stewards share their stories. There is so much need in today's troubled world that He wants us to address. Please pledge as generously as you can so that our church family can continue to work in His name and spread His word.

Interested in a First Church Committee? - There are openings on Prudential, Deacons, Christian Formation, and the Music Committees, as well as for delegate positions. Terms are for one year beginning in March 2024. If you'd like to know more about how the committees operate and what they do, please reach out to a member of the nominating committee (Jocelyn Henning, Charlie Morris, Todd Whitney) for more details, or get more information at https://wp.me/ab3kUy-3E4

A note to the congregation, that FIRST FOLK will be transitioning to a new exciting rehearsal and participation format, for those not looking for a full weekly rehearsal commitment, to still serve in the music ministry. For the remainder of this 23/24 Season, it will be an "all are welcome" format, where for each worship project, the 'ask' will be a half-hour rehearsal post Sunday worship (Music Room, 2nd floor old building) from 11:30am-12:00pm followed by the week of singing in 10AM worship with a 9:00-9:25am rehearsal (Sanctuary).

Anyone who can make BOTH rehearsals (per project) is welcome to sing with FIRST FOLK. Choose one project, or all five of the remaining worship dates for the season, published in upcoming Newsletters. - Reading music helps a little bit in learning the written harmonies, but all are welcome to come sing with the ensemble. – The next sequence will be on 12/3 at 11:30am and 12/10 at 9am. – Contact the music office (jolefirowicz@tfcucc.org) or (603) 882-4861 x15, for more information.

Stewardship Note from Prudential- Each year in November our members and friends pledge to give to staff and run the church for the following year. We also get income from rental properties and other uses in the church and from a few endowments given in the past. In most years we fall short on our income so that we have to take money from our Trust Fund to cover the balance, which is typically around $75K, or roughly seven percent of our spending. In 2023 our pledge income has been even lower than that due to losses in church members (some have passed; others have moved away) so our shortfall this year will be approximately $150K. While we have kept expenses in check for the last five years, this ongoing shortfall is not sustainable. Our typical pledge income has been around $750K, so the shortfall in most years has been 10%; this year more like 20%.

We ask you to prayerfully consider this when you make your pledge for 2024. A 10-15% increase in overall pledge income will put us on more solid footing and permit us to continue our staffing and ministries in the future.

White Dove/Silver Dove Programs 2023 – Thanksgiving gift cards have all been delivered and now is the time for White Dove.
